SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 23

American Conservatory Theater Performance of Lackawanna Blues

Tony Award-winning actor Ruben Santiago Hudson wrote Lackawanna Blues, his first play, as a tribute to the woman who raised him in an unconventional boarding house in New York. Embodying more than twenty roles, Santiago Hudson brings them all to life in what the New York Times called "a virtuoso performance...he passes from one identity to the next so fluidly that you barely notice the flip of the switch." Masterful blues guitarist Bill Sims Jr. provides live musical accompaniment." Dine at Anjou Restaurant before the performance. Meet in the lobby at 5:00 p.m.. $42.50/ticket (Dress Circle), no-host dinner. Limit 20.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 24

The Beat Track

Take a walking tour of North Beach led by poet David Gitin and Ken Bullock, former denizens whose art was formed there during the fifties. Sip an espresso and reminisce. Listen to a poem. Find treasures at City Lights. Transportation included. Meet in hotel lobby at 9:00 a.m. $12.00/person. Limit 12.

Each registered participant of the conference will receive a CD Rom entitled Shaping San Francisco, An Interactive Multimedia Excavation of Lost History of San Francisco. An excellent teaching tool, courtesy of Chris Carlsson.
